

My kind of beautiful

Gift to remember

My engagement ring from my fiancé. One of the best days of my life. We eventually picked it in Dubai.

Make-up magic

I love Clinique Beyond Perfecting Foundation, blended out for a smooth coverage base. It's buildable and a dewy finish to cover my rosy cheeks.

SIGNATURE FRAGRANCE

Nothing girly or remotely floral. I'm a pale, Scottish blonde but love to smell like an exotic Arabian, so I'd say Aqua di Parma Oud or Tom Ford Oud Wood.

Skincare essentials

I swear by the ZO system by Dr. Zein Obagi. Powerful and not for the faint-hearted, but boy does it work to change and refine the surface of your skin and hugely reduce lines and discolouration.

BEAUTY ICON

My mum. She's incredible and looks at least 15 years younger than her age, which would shock you if you knew!

I have vivid memories of sitting on her bed as a wee girl watching her put all her make-up on. I'm also attracted to other blondes and the way they style themselves – celeb-wise Margot Robbie, Jennifer Lawrence, Gwen Stefani, the Olsen twins... and does Olivia Palermo ever get it wrong?

PERSONAL STYLE

I dart about in Lululemon gym gear on my day off but if it's a night out I'll always be dressy and in heels. I love ASOS, Zara, Topshop, Karen Millen and Whistles. Usually there's a tailored finish and a sprinkling of sexiness in some way or another – I like showing my legs but nothing else.
