

Meet a host of industry insiders at Wedding Picture Perfect, the bridal beauty and style event of the summer with Tie the Knot Scotland in partnership with Dr Nestor's Medical & Cosmetic Centre

MAKE A DATE with style

A recent study revealed that 32% of married women cringe when they look back at their wedding dress, while 38% wish they'd switched up their hair and beauty, and a staggering 30% regretted their wedding photos. To make sure wedding album regret is a thing of the past, a new event will bring together some of Scotland's most stylish wedding suppliers to get brides (and their bridal party) ready for the big day.

Wedding Picture Perfect with Tie the Knot Scotland in partnership with Dr Nestor's Medical & Cosmetic Centre, will take place on 28th June 2018 from 6pm to 8.30pm, at The Principal Edinburgh

George Street Hotel. Glamorous brides-to-be can learn about all aspects of getting ready for their wedding day, from choosing the perfect hairstyle to learning how to pose for natural photos.

Dr Nestor, founder of Edinburgh's prestigious Medical & Cosmetic Centre, and his team will be on hand to discuss aesthetics and offer expert advice on cosmetic procedures to make sure brides are looking beautiful and feeling confident on their big day. Find out how to get your best-ever skin for your wedding day, or see before-and-afters of treatments, like lip filler enhancements.

Enjoy a glass of fizz as you explore the stunning Library space at The Principal, filled with experts to help you look stylish and sophisticated while still remaining comfortable on your big day.

Olive Jones Bridal (the only Scottish stockist of leading designers including Charlie Brear, Karen Willis Holmes and Elbeth Gillis) will be showcasing contemporary wedding dresses from this season's collections. Jenners will also have a selection of on-trend fashion and accessories for wedding guests, bridesmaids and mothers of the bride as personal stylist, Anita Ross, brings the shop to you.

With everything you need to organise and enjoy your special day, Edinburgh-based stationers, Busy B, will be on hand to talk you through their Bride-to-B range. From the ultimate Bride-to-B wedding planner to a travel wallet for your heavenly honeymoon, every product has been cleverly designed and beautifully finished.

Independent makeup artist Eve Learmonth will offer bridal makeup demonstrations and product recommendations, and Outbound in Africa (who specialise in Southern African safaris) will have plenty of top tips for booking the perfect honeymoon getaway. Other leading brands, such as New Town Dental Care, will help you finish off your look, and the event's professional wedding photographer will make sure you're comfortable in front of the lens, ready for your big day. ♥
